

Program Coordinator and Professor of Biblical Studies

Horizon College & Seminary invites applications for a full-time faculty member who will serve as the Master of Arts in Biblical and Theological Studies (MABT) Coordinator and as a professor of biblical studies. This is an on-campus appointment in Saskatoon, with a flexible start date between January 2025 and June 2025. The successful candidate will be appointed as a faculty member of both Horizon in Saskatoon, SK and Master's College & Seminary (MCS) in Mississauga, ON, since the two institutions partner to share curriculum, resources, faculty, and staff cross-provincially.

Qualifications

The ideal candidate will have:

- a PhD in biblical studies.
- strong commitment to the Evangelical Fellowship of Canada's statement of faith.
- experience teaching in a Christian college and seminary, including with online teaching.
- ministry experience in a local church.
- demonstrated spiritual maturity.
- disposition or training to work pastorally and in mentored relationships.
- engaged in scholarly research and writing.
- excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- high administrative and organizational skills.
- basic computer literacy to work with and learn various computing platforms.

Apply by October 21, 2024. Please see the full details of the job posting at <https://www.horizon.edu/were-hiring-mabt-coordinator/>.